Competitive Position Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT: C20010247

OPEN: 8/27/2001

CLOSE: 09/06/2001

POSITION VACANT: Criminal Investigator, GS-1811-11/12. Annual salary ranges from $44,352 to $69,099.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Criminal Investigator, GS-1811-13.

THIS POSITION REQUIRES 15%-20% TRAVEL

LOCATION: Office of Inspector General, Investigations Section, National Science Foundation, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is outside the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the Merit Promotion Plan described in NSF Manual 14 (PER II-500).

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: Government Wide. This position is open to status candidates, as well as candidates eligible for appointment under special non-competitive appointing authorities. The National Science Foundation will not pay relocation expenses.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Conducts complex white-collar crime investigations of possible violations (such as fraud, bribery, improper and false claims, collusion, misuse of loan/grant funds, conversion of government property, embezzlement and kickbacks) against the government.
- Assists in the conduct of regular examinations or studies of programs and personnel performance to identify and report operating conditions that have actual or potential adverse effects upon NSF's objectives and reputation; reflects inadequate standards of employee behavior, integrity, and adequacy; indicate lacks of compliance with policies and regulations; and/or involves lapses or abuses of authority.
- Performs difficult and complex administrative investigations of mismanagement, conflict of interest, unethical behavior, and assisting in special studies and cases involving misconduct of science.
- Prepares reports based on analysis and evaluation of evidence. These reports contain statements, facts, evidentiary documents, and records developed during the course of the investigation and makes recommendations for appropriate action.
- Assures that each investigative file is properly secured and maintained on a current basis so that all pertinent information is readily available upon receipt of inquiries from appropriate officials.
- Provides leadership and is adept at working in small team environments.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: The Qualification Standards Handbook for General Schedule Positions will apply. U.S. CITIZENSHIP IS REQUIRED. This position is covered by the special retirement provisions for Federal Law Enforcement Officers (FLEO). Applicants without previous FLEO service must be at least 21 years of age and must not have reached age 36 at the time of appointment. Applicants must have one year of specialized criminal investigation experience, equivalent to the GS-11 grade level, that included planning and conducting investigations of individuals or organizations to collect facts regarding their character, suitability, qualifications, or to substantiate claims, or for legal cases, military intelligence, or law enforcement purposes, or legal work such as interviewing suspects and witnesses or criminal law practice. Time-in-Grade Requirements: Completion of one year of service in a position at the next lower grade in the normal line of promotion progression for this occupation.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad knowledge of investigative principles, methods, techniques and procedures, experience and ability to adapt them to specific situations in the field of white-collar crime.
2. Skill in conducting interviews, interrogations that involved eliciting evidence, data or surveillance information.
3. Ability to analyze, evaluate and assimilate evidence, develop all the elements of a criminal or administrative investigation, develop investigation reports, and provide advice or necessary corrective action.
4. Knowledge of one or more scientific/engineering disciplines sufficient to understand the significance and relationship of the concepts of that field.
5. Ability to work and provide leadership to small multidisciplinary teams investigating white-collar crime.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Selective Factor, if any, and the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to this position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year probationary period may be required. The incumbent must be able to pass the physical examination for federal Criminal Investigators.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). Status candidates must also submit a Notification of Personnel Action (SF-50), showing competitive status, and a current Performance Appraisal. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement, which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: • Your country of citizenship. • Your social security number. • Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether semester or quarter hours. • Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with same employer, describe each separately. • If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. • The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in this vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for the job.

Status candidates who wish to be considered under both merit promotion and delegated competitive examining procedures must submit two complete applications. If only one application is received, it will be considered under the merit promotion program.

Applicants who are eligible for appointment under special non-competitive appointing authorities must clearly indicate your specific eligibility and provide proof with your application. Otherwise, the application will be considered under competitive procedures.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.

Applicants applying for special selection priority under the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program must submit proof of eligibility (i.e., RIF separation notice, Notification of Personnel Action (SF-50) stating you were separated by RIF, OR a letter from your agency documenting your special selection priority status); copy of your current performance appraisal; and documentation of promotion potential in the position from which separated. To be determined well qualified to receive special selection priority for this position, you must meet all qualification and eligibility requirements, all selective factors, and be rated at the above average level or higher in each quality-ranking factor.

Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after three years or more of continuous active service may apply. Veteran candidates should attach a copy of your DD-214; and, if applicable, Application for 10-Point Veteran's Preference, along with documentation specified on the form. (This is not necessary for status candidates for consideration under merit promotion procedures).
